American Century by Murphy Guyer

A married couple blissfully reunited after the end of World War Two are interrupted in the act of procreation by the son they are actually making. He is back from the future and his careless revelations about their future family life are horrifying for them and hilarious for us.

Bus Stop Blues by Kyle Mercer

A story of a young man desperately in need of some direction in his life. He finds himself inexplicably detained at a bus stop by an elderly woman who claims to possess the knowledge of the secret of longevity.
