

The world premiere

1.17AM, OR UNTIL THE WORDS RUN OUT

by Zoe Hunter Gordon

Directed by Sarah Stacey.

Set Design by Mim Houghton. Sound Design by Sarah Spencer. Lighting Design by Catja Hamilton.

Costume Design by Anouk Mondini. Dramaturgy by Sarah Stacey.

Presented by ZAVA Productions in association with Neil McPherson for the Finborough Theatre.

Cast: Catherine Ashdown. Eileen Duffy.

Edinburgh Fringe First Award winner Sarah Stacey directs the world premiere of 1.17am, or until the words run out by Zoe Hunter Gordon, at the multi-award-winning Finborough Theatre for a four week limited season on Tuesday, 10 February 2026 (Press Nights: Thursday, 12 February 2026 and Friday, 13 February 2026 at 7.30pm).

One night, two friends, a dead man's room.

How well do you know the people you love?

Katie and Roni were best friends, until they weren't.

Now Katie's brother is dead, and the two girls unexpectedly find themselves together again – in his bedroom.

Tonight they're going to tell each other the truth.

Because the truth will set you free – won't it?

A claustrophobic, unexpectedly funny new play about friendship, lies and the things we can't say to the people we need most.

First developed with support from HighTide, 1.17am... now receives its world premiere, following a critically acclaimed sell-out preview run at Theatre503.

Playwright Zoe Hunter Gordon is an Anglo-Scots writer and filmmaker. Her plays include Cecilia, shortlisted for the Yale Drama prize (King's Head Theatre), 1.17am, or until the words run out longlisted for the Theatre503 International Playwriting Award, and the three times OffWestEnd Award nominated Gap in the Light (Engineer Theatre at the New Diorama Theatre). Work for screen includes Better (BFI Network at the London Film Festival), Our Fathers (Scottish Documentary Institute, Glasgow Film Festival and BBC Scotland) and ill, actually (BBC4). Zoe trained as a writer on the Soho Theatre Writers Course, Bristol Old Vic New Voices, the Easter Residency at North Wall, Oxford, and the Lyric Hammersmith Writer's Course. She is also a part-time lecturer on the BA Film and Television Practise at London South Bank University.
